

About Me

As a soon-to-be graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science Engineering, I am equipped with a solid academic foundation in network security, ethical hacking, and risk management. My hands-on project experience and certifications in CEH demonstrate my commitment to the field. Actively engaged in the Cybersecurity Club and CTF competitions, I am eager to embark on a cybersecurity career, ready to contribute and continue learning in a professional environment to protect digital assets from cyber threats.
